

FileOne License agreement

License, Liabilities, Notices, Restrictions, Rights and Warranty.

This license pertains to daxLAB Limited and its software DocOne and FileOne and to you (the user of DocOne or FileOne software).

By downloading and/or using DocOne/FileOne you agree with the terms and conditions of this license agreement.

(1) Rights

You can use this license to work with DocOne/FileOne on as many computers and devices you like, only when you registered yourself (using one or more valid email address(es)) for a trial version or a full unlimited version of DocOne or FileOne.

You can distribute the work associated with this license (DocOne/FileOne and DocOne/FileOne components/files to run DocOne/FileOne) as long as you do not modify any of the FileOne components.

See also (5) Open Source Notices for more information on the Open Source portions of FileOne which allow you to use, modify and distribute those portions according to GPL and LGPL licenses.

(2) Restrictions on aforementioned "(1) Rights"

See also (5) Open Source Notices

(3) Liability

daxLAB Limited cannot be hold responsible and/or accountable and/or liable for damage caused by the use of FileOne software.

(4) Warranty

daxLAB warrants the use of FileOne by:
supplying patches free of charge (without a predefined/agreed response time)
email support (without a predefined/agreed response time)

(5) Open Source Notices

daxLAB Limited does impose restrictions on the closed source portions as mentioned in (2) Restrictions on aforementioned "(1) Rights" which are not part of any open source category.

However the FileOne software also uses dynamically linked Open Source libraries which are not modified by daxLAB Limited.

The license agreements mentioned below allow you to do anything with the open source portions of FileOne software. Note that this applies to the Open Source portions of FileOne, NOT the closed source portions mentioned in (2).
